During a gala event held at the Baylor Club, McLane Stadium in Waco on November 18, the Friends of Texas Public Schools honored the 2020 Texas Public Schools Ambassador of the Year, Brazosport ISD Superintendent Danny Massey.

The Ambassador award was established to honor and promote the efforts of an educator the organization believes serves their students and communities as an ambassador who inspires confidence in their schools and educators. The Ambassador of the Year exhibits courage, class, and conviction in his or her promotion of the great things happening in their schools and is quick to defend the honor of his or her colleagues.

Friends Co-Founder Leslie Milder said, "Danny Massey is a model Ambassador for Texas Public Schools. His genuine love for the people of Brazosport ISD and his gift for connecting with students, staff and community is inspiring. People follow his lead because he is likeable, relatable, and they know he genuinely cares about them."

Congratulations Mr. Massey!
